

Packing List

- Insulated Mugs- to keep your beverages frosty cool all day at the pool!
- Toothbrush, toothpaste, floss, deodorant, shampoo, conditioner (leave in is good with the pool water), q-tips, moisturizer, shaving stuff, baby powder or baby oil
- Medications: Ibuprofen, aspirin, motrin, Imodium, Dramamine if you need it. Rx medications should be in properly labeled packaging- with YOUR names on them.
- Neosporin and Band-Aids
- Bug Repellent
- Aloe Vera Lotion
- Sunscreen of various strengths
- Altoids/Breath Strips/Mints- you will make a lot of friends with these :)
- Lubricant- water resistant if you're going to play in the hot tub or your room tub.
- Condoms Lotion/massage oil
- A hat
- Sunglasses (perhaps bring a second pair)
- Clothes for theme nights you want to participate in including toga, pj, retro, pirate, etc...
- Shoes you can wear in the water
- Lysol/Air freshener for the AC filter

- Bedroom toys- if they have batteries make sure they have been taken out before packing!
Waterproof ones are fun!
- Extra Batteries
- Sarongs/Pareos for him and her- very comfortable and an easy coverup
- $1 and $5 bills for tips at the airport
- Beach Bag- helps going from the room to the pool/beach, and for shopping.
- Mp3 player or CD's
- Camera
- Dive Certification (if you have one), dive log, and personal gear if you choose to not use those provided
- Pillowcase or Laundry Bag to keep clean clothes separated from the dirty ones
- Reading Material- mainly for the plane- though some people read poolside.
- Nail polish or sharpies to paint your rock (it is a custom to paint a rock and put it in the garden that some participate in)
- Address Book to put contact information in from your new friends
- Photocopies of your passport- kept in a separate place from your regular ones.
- Cigarettes: If you smoke, we are told the selection at the resort is small and expensive.